CAN YOU SUPPLY INFORMATION ABOUT THE FOLLOWING? Mr. Charles B. Boon, 12598 Road 26 1/2, Madera, California 93637, a native of Jackson, Tennessee, and grandson of John J. Boon, a Madison County pioneer who served in the Sixth Infantry Regiment, CSA, and a member of the Tennessee Legislature, writes: "As a youngster I remember visiting the basement of the City Library (I think that it was on College St.) and viewing the collection of Confederate arms, flags and accoutrements. I understand that my grandfather contributed something to this display. Would it contain the regimental flag (or colors) of the 6th Tennessee Regiment? If so, would a picture or diagram of this flag be available? This is not idle curiosity on my part but a sincere desire to help find as much data as possible."

MURRAY, JEFFRIES FAMILY BIBLE

The following is taken from an old family Bible believed to belong to Amanda Warren Jeffries and family. There is no information on the flyleaf in front of the Bible, not even any information of publishing of this particular Bible. It looks as if it had been mended at sometime back in history. The flysheet before the New Testament show that this Bible was published in New York by the American Bible Society in 1867. Submitted by Jane Hutcherson (Mrs. E. O.) Bruce, 37 Ridgeview, Jackson, Tennessee, 38301, who is the owner of the Bible.

Obituary

I sometime hold it half a sin,
To put in words the grief I feel,
For words, like nature half reveal,
And half conceal the soul within.

On January 25th, death visited our home and took a beloved aunt, Belle Warren, aged 64 years, and again February 8th, God called another one, Lucy Warren Murry, aged 60 years. Both were consistent Christians and were kind to all, not only will they be missed in the home circle, but in the community where they were born and raised. Their lives of usefulness have endeared them to all. To their orphaned nieces and nephews they filled a mothers' place, and to their widowed brother they have indeed been a solace. Their devotion to an aged mother was beautiful to see. We miss them so much.

"Thou art gone to the grave, but we're wrong to deplore thee,
When God was their ransom, thy guardian,
thy guide;
He gave thee, and took thee, and soon will restore thee,
Where death hath no sting since the Savior
hath died."

We know they had exchanged this life of toil, sin and sorrow for a heavenly home, where sin shall nevermore annoy. May God comfort the remaining ones and help us to lead Christian lives, to meet them.

"In that beautiful land
That far away home of the soul,
Where no storms ever beat on the glittering strand,
Where the years of eternity roll." M.E.J.

A LETTER FROM BETTIE JONES KELSO

Submitted by Mrs. Virginia Naylor Smith, 1716 Temple Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee 37215. The following letter is the oldest letter Mrs. Smith has in her possession. It was written by her grandmother, Bettie Jones Kelso, to her husband's brother's wife, Mrs. John F. Kelso, during the time they were living in Texas.

"Hatchy Bottom"

3 March 1861

Dear Henrietta, Yours came safe to hand a few days since, it was a long time acoming but arrived at last, and it was quite a welcome visitor. I wrote a letter once but concluded that there was so many writing to you that you did not care to make another correspondent in the same neighborhood. Our family are tolerable, Bettie (1) is threatened with pneumonia but is much better, better than she was last night. Ma (2) has been sick several weeks, she is coming here tomorrow to stay a week or two, thinking that the change will benefit her. George (3) is living at Nancy's (4) place overseeing for Mulherrin (5), and the last mentioned is at his own farm, with his lovely young agreeable bride. He tells her that she shall have nothing to do with her place, but can do as she wishes at his home. She is better off than the rest of us, has two homes. She glories in it too.

Poor Sister Mary (6) is dead, her child died before it was born and she could not give it birth. Doctor dissected it. I never saw a poor mortal suffer as she did, she was taken Saturday evening that operation was preformed Sunday night and she died Wednesday. She called Charles (7) and asked if he had forgotten his promise that was to have her buried in Kentucky but he was not able to have her carried. She looked at Johnny (8) and said "Bless your sweet little heart". She said that she was not afraid to meet her God but that she dreaded to suffer death, you might have heard her groans before you went inside the yard. She had not had a day's sickness since she left her home in Kentucky. In the Midst of life we are in death.

Brother Lovick's wife (9) has been very low and while she was so sick her oldest son was coming from school, got in Mr. Ragland's (10) wagon to ride and as they were coming down the hill the other side of Mr. Archibells (11) the front gate of the wagon fell out, he was sitting with his back to it and as soon as that fell he followed it and the wheel ran over him and killed him in an instant. Martha (12) had miscarried and was flooding at the time and the Dr. said if she found it out it would kill her immediately. They sent all the rest of the children down to Sister (13) and they stayed there until she got better. Bill (14) was there yesterday and said as soon as Buddie (15) got well enough that he would bring Sister Martha to let her stay a week.

Overalls family has gone over the river. She was over to Dick Hills (before they went away) and remarked to Aunt Nancy "Law, Miss Hills, you have got so much pretty yarn to knit and here I can't git a bit to knit my boy a pair socks". "Well", says Aunt Nancy, "Why don't you knit cotton?" "Y Miss Hill, I never though of that afore". She sent here the next week borrowed the wheel and cards to spin knitting "truck" as she termed it, went off and left the wheel in the yard and carried the cards with her or destroyed them. Col. Harden was here yesterday, his heart is much better. Bill is very anxious to sell, he has no overseer but has cleared a beautiful new ground. I see no use of moving, we make plenty here to eat and what will it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul? Liza Jeter is dead. Emily is not married yet. I'd like to see Pattie since she has fattened up, tell her to write to me. Bettie Watkins is dead. Old Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Sanders are living with the Dr. Our wheat looks very pretty, we have had a very pleasant warm winter, turnips have kept good in patches. I send you some simbling (16) seed, they are very fine. In order to keep them so, save the first largest that comes on the vine for seed. Bill bought seed in Memphis several years ago and they are better now than they were before. Ask John if he is in a fair way for getting sick. I expect that he is so desirous of getting wealthy that he lets that thought absorb his whole soul, mind, and strength. I'd rather live on bread and water the balance of my life than go to Texas. I don't know what makes me so simple, sometimes when John would get praising Texas I would be perfectly carried away with his eloquence but as soon as he was gone I'd forget it all. I sometime imagine that I can almost see you as you are situated on the flourishing banks of the beautiful Colorado. It would afford me great pleasure to visit you and stroll over your prairies that are bedecked with flowers of every hue, but I shall never be able unless some of my N. C. cousins die. They are old maids and maybe they will die, but I've heard it said that old dried up in place of dying. My baby's name is Anne Sidney, she is fat and is the largest of any of my children to her age. Give my love to Delia (?) and tell her to write, her pa's family are well I reckon. I heard that he was going to Texas after the fourth of March and that is tomorrow.

Write

Your Sister Bettie A. Kelso

P. S. Tell Jno. that I don't think Jim will be able to pay Col. Hardin any money at all this year it is impossible for me to borrow it as to show (?) this note. Please write what to do. Tell your Pa I feel under many obligations to him for waiting with me so patiently, that Tenn., has passed a law giving 12 months stay and 6 months on execution, tell him he knows I am a law abiding man, tell him if I had the $125 that I paid him that was not due I should take the same time on it. Jim Powell will get his money 12 months before Mr. Etheridge will.

Yours respectfully

W. S. Kelso

MCKAY LETTER

Submitted by Mrs. G. W. Fraine, 1367 East 46th Street, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74105. The following letter gave valuable clues as to where Mrs. Fraine's Grandfather was located in the 1840 and 1850 Census. Henry Thomas McKay (called Tom) married Fannie McKay in Memphis, Tennessee 4 January 1854. These two were second cousins and had the same surname, both descendants through different sons of Archibald McKay (1720-1797) who came from Scotland in 1752 and settled in Cumberland County, North Carolina.

After their marriage Tom and Fanny went to live in Denmark, Madison County, Tennessee. Shortly before this letter was written Tom had taken his wife to Memphis to the home of her parents, Archibald Alexander McKay and Catherine McMillan, for the first of their first child (22 November 1854). Tom rode the train from Memphis to Somerville, then rode horseback the rest of the way to his farm near Denmark. The Reid family mentioned in the letter were Thomas Reid and his third wife Catherine Belle McKay, sister of Henry Thomas McKay. Thomas Reid was married five times and is buried with three of his wives in the Denmark Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Denmark. He was the son of David Reid and Mary Ramsey, early settlers in Madison County.

The McKays and McMillans had also lived in Denmark but moved to the Memphis area about 1838. Catherine McMillan was the daughter of Rev. Murdoch Murphy McMillan and Jane Ramsey. Jane Ramsey McMillan and Mary Ramsey Reid were sisters. The letter reads as follows:

At Home October 24, 1854

My Dear Wife,

This is Wednesday night. I have just finished my supper. Pleasant (Negro slave) is washing up the dishes. Alice (Negro slave) sitting in a chair talking about Mistis. I am all alone and deeply engaged thinking about you my dear Fannie. I am nearly dead to see you. I cannot stand it much longer. I do assure you nothing would separate me from you but necessity. I never will agree in it again. I feel as though I were left along in the world. I do not feel like attending to my business. I got home about 10 o'clock Sunday night the darkest night I ever traveled. I thought at one time I would have to camp out. The cars did not get to Summerville until 2 o'clock. I did not go through Denmark. I sent Pleasant the next day with some things I brought up. she carried Todys to M. She locked up every thing when she started. I went over to Mr. Reids to get my dinner when I got their found no one at home all gone to Haywood and have not yet returned. I have staid at home all the time have not gone anywhere. I am going to Denmark Saturday. Expect to see Tody (or Judy) their. I do not know anything to write except about home. I have finished gathering my corn. Negroes done nothing whilst I was gone. I am trying to make them make it up. I hope you are doeing well. Take care of yourself. God Bless you. I will see you as soon as I can. I will write again in three days. I know you will answer my letters. Your affectionate husband

Tom

The letter was folded up and addressed on the back of the paper to: Mrs. H. T. McKay, Care of A. A. McKay, Memphis, Tenn. A note at the bottom said: My best love to all and tell them to take good care of my wife.
